Credit Release

Important Information About Opening An Account: OMAX Corporation complies with Section 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Acknowledgment & Authorizations: By signing below, you, the credit applicant(s), certify that the information given for credit purposes is true and correct; you authorize OMAX Corporation, its assigns, and any credit bureau or other investigative agency to investigate the references, statements, and other information accompanying this application, and you expressly authorize bank and trade references listed herein to release credit and information requested as part of said investigation. The actual finance source used will not be a manufacturer, seller, or distributor of any equipment and will make no representation or warranty whatsoever with respect to the condition, specifications, operation, performance, value, design, durability, sustainability, and/or fitness for a particular purpose, of any such equipment.

ECOA Notice: If your application for business credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial. To obtain the statement, please contact OMAX at 21409 72nd Ave S, Kent, WA 98032 within 60 days from the date you are notified of our decision. We will send you a written statement of reasons for the denial within 30 days of receiving your request for the statement. The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. For assistance from the federal agency that administers compliance with the law concerning this credit, contact the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20552.
